Defendants.

The Grand Jury charges:

INTRODUCTION

1. At all times material to this Indictment, BRANDI J. BAXTER was a resident of the federal District of Nebraska.

2. BRANDI J. BAXTER executed a scheme to defraud the U.S. Social Security Administration (SSA) and the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services (NDHHS).

3. Social Security Disability (SSI) is a resource-based program providing monthly benefits to people with limited income and resources who are disabled. Benefit eligibility for SSI is determined in part on all available resources, assets, income, and living arrangements.

4. The scheme was effectuated through a series of factual concealments by BRANDI J. BAXTER. Specifically, BRANDI J. BAXTER concealed on numerous occasions that her husband JESSE BAXTER, was residing in the family home located in Grand Island, Nebraska, at an address made fully known to the grand jury.

5. The scheme also included the application and approval of Social Security Disability (SSI) benefits for the daughter of the Defendant, T.L. BAXTER, whose full name is known to the Grand Jury. T.L. BAXTER was medically approved by SSA pursuant to a July 7, 2015, determination by the Social Security Administration.

6. On the application for T.L. Baxter, Defendant, BRANDI J. BAXTER reported that Jesse Baxter no longer lived with BRANDI J. BAXTER.

7. The scheme also included BRANDI J. BAXTER providing false information that Jesse Baxter did not live in the family home, to the SSA concerning a redetermination of Social Security benefits for another daughter of the Defendant, N.N.B, whose full name is known to the Grand Jury.

8. The scheme also included applications to the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services for public assistance benefits by BRANDI J. BAXTER. She applied for and received SNAP (formerly known as food stamps) assistance through the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services.

9. BRANDI J. BAXTER falsely represented to the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services that Jesse Baxter no longer resided in the family home, resulting in the approval of benefits to which she was not entitled.

10. The Grand Jury incorporates the Introduction above and further alleges as follows:
